COMPANY GIVEN THREE DAYS TO REPAIR STREET

Council Takes Action on Recommendation of Solicitor Grant Mouser

CITY MAY DO WORK

Cost Will Then Be Charged Against Concern's Taxes, Is Claim

Taking issue directly with George Whysall, general manager of the Columbus, Marion & Bucyrus Railway Co. for his repeated failure to repair the pavement adjacent to the company's tracks in N. Main st. City Council last night delivered its final ultimatum.

As the order stands the traction company is given three days to start repair work.

If at the expiration of this time limit no action has been taken the City Service Department under Director [illegible] Benedict will do the work, charging the cost against the company's taxes.

This action was taken after City Solicitor Grant E. Mouser Jr. presented a written report of legal steps which the city may take to force repair of

Reviews Steps

"I have carefully reviewed the authorities with reference to the action that the city of Marion should take against The Columbus, Marion and Bucyrus Railway Co. for its failure to repair its tracks in N. Main st. within a distance of one foot on either side of the same and have considered the steps to be taken from four legal viewpoints," Mouser wrote. "First, ouster proceedings; second, mandamus; third, mandatory injunction, and fourth, the remedy as provided in Section 15 of Ordinance No. 41."

The fourth step was chosen [illegible] the

YOUTHFUL GUNMAN IN HOSPITAL AFTER BATTLE

Captured After Running Fight with Police; Six Bystanders Wounded

New York, July 15—Glen Miller, youthful gunman of Buffalo who after attempting to hold up a restaurant last night was captured by police in a gun battle on Broadway in which theater crowds were thrown into a panic, was in a serious condition in Polyclinic Hospital today with four bullets in his body.

Six bystanders were wounded as bullets sprayed packed crowds on the sidewalk. Hundreds sought shelter in doorways, others fell on their faces and women knocked each other down as Miller poured a rain of bullets on police who had cornered him. He was trying to reload his revolver when captured.

When Miller attempted to hold up the cashier of Maloney's restaurant a waiter knocked him down. Nils Benson, a laborer, followed the bandit and pointed him out to a policeman. Then the chase began.

Miller was struck by a taxicab and hurled against S. J. Burg, a bystander. Using Burg as a shield the bandit emptied his revolver at four policemen who were closing in on him. Patrolman James Sullivan, standing within two yards of Miller, fired at the bandit four times and then Patrolman Grady felled Miller with his night stick.

The bystanders wounded were Philip Argus, Edith Argus, his daughter, Mrs. Della Susu, Mrs. Sallie [illegible], Louis Stern and Mrs. Stephanie Stephenson.

RESTORATION AND PROBE BEGIN AT NAVAL ARSENAL

Start Work of Removing Salvageable Non-Munitions from Blast Scene

Dover, N. J., July 15—The dreary round of restoration and investigation began today at the Lake Denmark naval arsenal.

The work of removing all salvageable munitions from the area affected by the explosions was started [illegible] under command of Lieutenant F. C. Richardson, the work of clearing up the reservation will take place later.

Across the valley at the gate of the Picatinny arsenal a large tent was [rais]ed up to house the board which today began to receive claims from civilians who suffered loss during the disaster. It is expected this work will take a long time as infinite details are involved.

Tomorrow another board will begin an investigation of the causes of the explosions preparatory to making recommendations concerning the future storage of high explosive ammunition.

FIND MUTE EVIDENCE OF MAN'S HEROIC EFFORTS

New York, July 15—Eight burned fingers clutching a portion of a nozzle of a fire hose today gave mute evidence to the heroic efforts of Marine Private Henry H. Mackert Jr. during the explosions and fire which destroyed the naval arsenal at Lake Denmark, N. J.

The fingers fused to the melted rubber showed that Mackert, after the first explosion, had attempted to extinguish the blaze which later set off the [illegible] magazine blowing him to bits.

The list of identified dead was brought to 13 when experts discovered that the body of Captain Purvell H. Clarke, United States M. C., of Little Rock, Ark., was among those in the naval morgue. This leaves four unidentified dead in the morgue and there are five men listed as missing, four Marines and Chief Gunner's Mate J. M. Gatelys, of New York.

The warrant named Mrs. Walsh because Ford's confession said she had full knowledge of the case according to the police.

GERMANY WARNS AGAINST INVESTMENT IN MARKS

Embassy Claims Huge Losses Will Be Sustained If Practice Continues

Washington, July 15—Huge losses will be sustained in wide speculation [illegible] going on in the United States in bank notes and bonds of the old German mark issue, the German embassy warned the public in a statement today.

The paper mark currency, after having lost its value, was abolished altogether by Germany, the embassy explained.

All paper mark bonds and securities were affected by a revaluation law in 1925 and their value, if any, depends entirely upon the rate of revaluation, the embassy statement said.

Prices up to $250 per million marks have recently been paid in New York, according to reports received here.

Gives Unanimous Approval to 1927 Expense Estimate

Defends Action with Declaration That Procedure Is Not Understood; No Mystery to Law, Chamber of Commerce President Says in Answer to Action

DEFENDING its action with the declaration that the "city's budget procedure is not understood," City Council last night ignored the entreaty of the Marion Chamber of Commerce to trim expenditures and gave its unanimous approval to the proposed 1927 budget as it was originally drawn.

There was no bickering or discussion. The budget, including the increase of $125,000 over that granted the city for operating expenses this year, was given three perfunctory readings. The "yeas" were unanimous.

While council, in a statement prepared by Finance Chairman R. L. Prettyman and his committeemen, excused its act with the statement that the "public doesn't understand," George B. Knapp, executive head of the Chamber of Commerce today gave his version of council's attitude in handling public funds.

Referring to the finance committee's statement, Mr. Knapp declared:

"If the budget procedure is no more correct than the arithmetic in its statement, something needs correction.

"We would prefer not to say anything in answer to the finance committee's statement," Mr. Knapp continued. "Our organization has submitted figures showing the true tax situation during the last three years. These figures contained in the communication sent to Mayor Earl Hazen remain unquestioned today. The facts can't be disputed."

Referring specifically to council's claim that the "public doesn't understand," Mr. Knapp says:

"There is no mystery about this budget law. It is not the creature of some Marion official.

Says Responsibility Lacking

"The budget law was enacted two years ago by the Ohio Legislature to stop needless expenditures by city, school and county officials. This law requires local taxing bodies to prepare an honest budget showing the anticipated requirements. If the public officials want to proceed according to law and are not interested in increasing tax rates they will submit an honest budget of their requirements.

"It is unfortunate that local taxing bodies will not assume the responsibility of carefully preparing a budget and honestly endeavor to keep down expenditures.

"The burden is now placed on the shoulders of the county budget commission to decide how far city departments may go in spending public funds. The county budget commission, composed of Prosecutor Frank Wiedemann, County Auditor Rudge C. Dicker and County Treasurer Jones E. Messenger, will have to make the final decision as to

Charles Wensinger Succumbs to Injuries Received in Saturday Night Crash

Charges of manslaughter may be brought against Donald Mayse, Scranton av., following the death of Charles Wensinger, 68, of Fremont, O., early today at City Hospital as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident on the Bucyrus pk., Saturday night, County Prosecutor Frank Wiedemann said today.

Marion Family Camps De Luxe in Own Personally Built "House on Wheels"

COMBINING "all the comforts of home" and a "real outdoors good time" into one summer vacation, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. King and son Clifford, 244 S. Grant ave. are now enjoying an extended tour.

At present the party is "camped" in Kenosha, Mich. not in the ordinary camper's tent but comfortable quartered in a "house on wheels" which Mr. King not only designed but built.

Using an International truck chassis Mr. King built a box-like compartment, 6 feet wide and 14 feet long with height enough for one to stand erect. The "house", as it may be rightly called, contains one single room large enough to be divided into two compartments, has a glass front and contains one window at the rear and one on each side. A door opens into one side of the car.

The driver's seat which is in the front of the room accommodates three persons. The room may be lighted with electricity or with a gasoline lamp. Running water, the source of which is a tank beneath the car, is found near the front of the [illegible]. Known as the "kitchenette." A refrigerator, table, fireless cooler and built-in cupboard also are found in the "kitchenette."

A feature of the "house" is a radio which may be connected with the battery at night and which may be ably disposed of in a cabinet during the day. The rear of the car contains easy chairs, and a bed which folds tight against the wall when not in use. Two folding mattresses are used at night, which are separated by drawn curtains making "bedrooms." Hardwood is used in the woodwork and ruffle curtains and cretonne cushions (Mrs. King's contribution) complete the "hominess" of the compartment. Screens are used in the windows, thus defeating the incoming tendencies of the flies and mosquitoes which annoy the houseless camper.

Mr. and Mrs. King have selected no special route but will wander about in various states. They already have visited in Indiana and Illinois and are now traveling in Michigan and Wisconsin. Socialist Publication in Berlin Assails America's Attitude Toward France

Berlin, July 15—The United States was assailed as "the Shylock of Europe" in an editorial today in the Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts, commenting on the financial debate in the French Chamber of Deputies.

Vorwaerts remarked that it is incredible that the United States refuses to grant its ally, France, protection against inflation while granting it readily to her vanquished enemy, Germany. The editorial maintaining that French bitterness was fully justified and added that England was "relatively fair."

The editorial concluded that the United States will repent of its harsh attitude toward the debtor nations once European nations become conscious of their common interests.

France in Jail

Ford, haggard and worn, was held in [illegible] jail today on a charge of being an accessory before the fact to an illegal operation.

He was kept under close surveillance, police expressing a fear that he might attempt suicide.

In the wake of his remarkable confession and the issuance of murder warrants against Dr. and Mrs. Walsh, rumors were circulated that Dr. Walsh was prepared to give himself up and that a second doctor, whose name was reported known to the authorities, was sought in the case.

Police early today visited Dr. Walsh's office and home but failed to find anyone there. They took away with them several articles, including a record book which Superintendent Crowley said contained information that may prove of value.

The veil of mystery surrounding the identity of the girl was pierced last night when Betty Landry, a nurse, identified the victim as her chum and co-worker in the Psychopathic Hospital at Roxbury.

It was through her that police learned [illegible] the murdered girl's relations with Ford.

Daily Proverb— Contempt will sooner kill an injury than revenge.

It is simply amazing how careful our French friends are in not overlooking anything which will have a tendency to depress the franc.

It took a subway strike to demonstrate to New Yorkers that legs could be utilized as a means of locomotion as well as targets for the eye.

What we yet are unable to understand is why Ponzi ever started for Italy when there is manifestly far greater need of a real financier in France.

Crime has so long gone unpunished in this country that the murderer, bandit or crook who happens to be apprehended and convicted naturally takes it as a clearly defined case of discrimination.

The ballot to be voted at the primary down in Cincinnati will be exactly three feet and a half long. To paraphrase it a bit, what crimes are committed in the name of reform!

"There's one thing to be said for oil as a fuel. It greatly simplifies the work of the housewife and in no way lessens the opportunity of the head of the household to brag about how he looks after the furnace."

About the only consolation the French are able to get from day to day out of the fall of the franc is that the situation might be still worse.

"Can an automobile be used as a deadly weapon?" asks an exchange. Can it? Behold the thinned ranks of us true aristocrats of the land and then in mind vision the mute witnesses reposing in our cities of the dead!

That portion of the press which can not exist on its regular advertising patronage and its circulation will naturally be lukewarm toward the plan to abolish the primary.

The Anaconda Standard says "the worst of it is that after the mosquitos are all through the spell binders will begin addressing themselves to red blooded Americans." Naturally. The horrors invariably increase as a campaign progresses.

At some periods of the year a gain of $109,015 in local bank deposits in seventy five days would be decidedly remarkable, but when the period in question begins right upon the heels of tax return day we would take it that thrifty citizens have chucked right up to the limit in anticipation of the fateful date.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, calling attention to the fact that Governor Donahey refused Al Smith's invitation to visit with him in New York, remarks that "the governor isn't trusting that Tammany cat any." Maybe Vic's afraid it might mistake him for a canary.

So much depends on the viewpoint. Out this way Mr. Vare is being criticized for the quarter of a million expended in his preliminary senatorial campaign while over in Pennsylvania no doubt "the boys" look upon him as a regular tightwad.

A London story quotes a bobby over there as saying that all he knows about the various places of interest in his district he learned from Americans, which recalls a quick way to tell an Englishman. Ask him where the late Queen Victoria is buried, and if he answers correctly he isn't.

More Ground for Gratification.

Several times recently we have spoken in a complimentary way of the Columbus, Delaware and Marion Electric company and its management. We have spoken as we have because commendation or compliment, as the case might be, was deserved. We probably have been able to speak so whole heartedly as we have because of the policy of the management, which consists in going ahead in the improvement of its physical resources and the extension of its sphere of operations without blare of trumpet or other brass band effect, permitting the results to speak for themselves.

All this is by way of preamble to the expression of our gratification over the announcement that the company has taken over by purchase the plant of the Ashley Light, Heat and Power company, thus adding [illegible] light patrons to its already long list, Ashley making twenty-five communities now being served with current from the company's big power plant at Scioto, Richwood and Lewis Center having been added in recent weeks.

The greater the patronage such is the equipment of its plant, the better the service the company can afford at the same or lesser cost. The more its assured patrons the better it can figure toward economy of operation, and the more economically it can operate the greater is the assurance of financial stability and profit.

As we have pointed out previously, we look upon the C., D. and M. as a local asset, and we are ever unfeignedly glad to see local assets increase and thrive. Hence our gratification of the adding of Ashley to the communities served by the Scioto plant.

More Money, More Expenditures.

A few days ago—to be exact, July 10—a news story sent out from Washington told us that the receipts of the government for taxes for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1926, as a result of the cuts made in income rates on the recommendation of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, had exceeded by $251 972 631.44 those of the preceding year, the grand total of collections from tax sources having been $2,836,112,889.68, against $2,584,140,268.24 in 1925.

We never for a minute doubted but what the result would justify the secretary's expressed view that reduced taxes would inevitably be reflected in increased returns. Such was bound to be the case. The lower rates called money invested in non taxable securities back to productive industry and brought money out of hiding as well.

Looking back to the time when the revenue bill was up for discussion and recalling the utterances of some of our lawmakers on the subject of taxation, it may be seen what pygmies they are in matters of finance when compared with the head of the treasury department. As financial lights the brilliancy of our legislators compared with that of the secretary is that of a tallow candle to a high power electric flame.

That the tax cut resulted as it did is indeed fortunate. At least we may so consider it. The members of congress may not be Napoleons of finance, but they certainly aren't any flinches when it comes to the matter of appropriations.

July 12—two days after the date of the Washington story referred to—a second story was sent out from the national capital stating that the appropriations passed by congress at the recent session made a grand total of $4,109,377,151, an increase over the appropriations of the previous session of $273,602,305. In other words, we take in $251,972,631.44 more, but we are going to pay $273,601,305 more out.

To be perfectly frank about the matter, however, there is reason why there should be increase in the expenses of the government. There was a saving, of course, in interest on government obligations which have been paid off, but far over and above this saving was the increased expenditure due to the increase in the pay of postal employes, something like $136,000,000 paid out in the way of a bonus to World war veterans, and many millions by way of tax refunds, all of which added expense was alike legitimate and commendable in the eyes of the major portion of our citizenship.

We aren't finding fault. We are simply calling attention to the tendency of our legislative bodies to find a place or places in which they can use all the money upon which they are able to lay hold, and it doesn't in the slightest degree matter what may be the political complexion of such legislative bodies. The only way to save money is to beat them to the spending of it whenever such a course is possible by applying it on debts, when such application of it can be legally made.

We very gravely fear that Aimee McPherson is lacking in patriotism. The idea of permitting herself to get kidnaped by Mexicans with half the Americans in Los Angeles looking for jobs!

The Youngstown Vindicator tells us that Constance Talmadge got front page publicity because she only wears fourteen ounces of clothing. Huh! Constance isn't so much. There's a New York picture paper which runs 'em from time to time with practically no clothes at all.

The people of the District of Columbia want to vote and the rest of the country in large part refuses to exercise the right of suffrage. What a contrary lot we are, scorning that which we have and seeking that which we have no possibility to scorn should it come to us!

One reason for assuming that King Alfonso will not arbitrate between Chile and Peru is that from his early childhood he has been mighty consistent in not picking up hot irons by mistake.

Dresses Mustn't Cramp Lungs.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City

A prominent woman said the other day: "Women are injuring their health rather than benefiting it at golf and tennis and other exercise because their clothing is too tight and they breathe improperly. To get action in every muscle and limb, I say you must relegate most of your clothing to the shelf."

Really, observation would lead most of us to believe that almost everything has been relegated that can be cast aside with propriety. It is difficult to believe there can be much more scanty attire than we gaze upon every day.

However, it may be that the lungs and abdominal organs are interfered with by the construction of modern dress. It is worth while to investigate. If it is a fact, then there must be a reform or the women will suffer needlessly.

There can be no such thing as perfect health unless the lungs are used properly. Shallow breathing is responsible for many a case of lowered vitality.

Food will not digest and be utilized by the body as it should be unless the lungs are used properly. You know how little heat a stove would give without air and lots of air. It is equally true of human beings that they can not thrive without oxygen.

If you are too heavy you can reduce your weight by dieting, particularly by eating less than usual. The reverse of this does not follow. Simply adding to the diet is not likely to put on flesh. Skinny persons are frequently great eaters. Actually they seem to grow poor from carrying around a surplus of food.

Such persons are not benefiting from the food because there is not enough oxygen to prepare it for the uses of the blood. Any sort of dress which interferes with free breathing will impair health. But I doubt if modern dress, with the elimination of the old fashioned corset, is responsible for many cases of ill health.

I am fully convinced, however, that ignorance of how to breathe has lots to do with much of human misery. You just can not thrive without an abundance of air. If you are flatchested and the collar bones stick out, it is possible you are not inflating the lungs as you should. You need advice if that is your condition.

I can quite understand that any form of dress which necessitates tight bands about the waist can do real harm. That is a manner of dressing which should not be practiced.

Really, the modern dress of women, shocking as it is to so many critics, is much better for health than the heavy, tight-fitting and overabundant clothing of a generation ago. Just how long these fashions will hold is a problem. But while the present vogue continues it is well for us to consider what should be the permanent style for women.

But what's the use? Women always have dressed as they please and they always will do this. Why complain or suggest?

Women thrive physically no matter what the rules for good dressing prescribe. But no matter what else may be done or neglected, let nothing interfere with free lung action and protection of the other organs from weight and pressure.

She Renounced Fame.

[The Mentor.]

Rosa Bonheur was a dressmaker's apprentice. But her father, a French drawing master of Jewish origin, noticing how promising her sketches were, allowed her to give up her trade and to devote herself to the thing she loved. She discovered that painting animals was her gift. When her famous picture, "The Horse Fair," was exhibited she would have received the Order of the Legion of Honor but it was withheld because she was a woman. Later the Empress Eugenie herself drove to the home of the artist to repair the slight.

At that very moment when her pictures were bringing fabulous sums she disappeared from the artistic world. For twenty years she spent most of her time giving free lessons to young people of talent. She lived at her estate near Fontainebleau, surrounded by favorite animals.

Today's Worst Story

BY WILL ROGERS

The worst joke I heard today was told me by Jesse Sweetser, the great American golf champion. I was having breakfast one morning in the Savoy hotel in London, and a big fine looking bunch of young Americans sat at the next table to me. I thought I knew some of them and sure enough it was the American amateur golf team that had gone to England to play in the Amateur championship and for the Walker cup, and boy, they just played 'em low. They grabbed both of them. It looked like Bobby Jones was going to bring it back home with the cows's bosom, but when just for a minute his foot slipped why little Jesse Sweetser started putting from down about the middle of the fairway and he holed everything under 200 yards. It was up in Scotland. He couldn't have hurt those Scotchmen any worse if he had asked them for a cigaret.

Of course there were many with Scotch stories. An American was looking for some one to play with and out on the tee he run onto a Scotchman. "What do you go round in, friend?" asked the American.

"Oh, about 10[illegible] or 106 when I am on my game."

"That's me too, brother. If I break 100 I want my picture in the golf gazette. That makes us look like about an even bet, so what do you say we get from here right now, shoot."

"Well, sir," said the American, relating the incident, "that Scotchman was the biggest liar I ever saw in my life. Why, he hammered that pill around there in eighty five, and I had to shoot my head on to get two and six out of him. No sir, those Scots are too big liars for me."—Copyright 1926.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. M'INTYRE

New York, July 15.—The chicken market of the Westside—market of New York—has long been a hotbed of professional strife, racketeery and even cold blooded assassinations. The Chicken Puller gang was [illegible] the most sinister of lawless marauders, slitting throats and pulverizing noses [illegible] of their diversions. The poultry merchants have never been considered a [illegible] of the fatality, but their various organizations have been the prey of constant [illegible] raiders.

Chicken is an article of food that for years has been beyond the purse of the average [illegible] through price manipulation. Those who [illegible] should be as reasonably priced as other meats. Legal action to dissolve [illegible] alleged "chicken trust" has often [illegible] unheld.

The market is accused of having a poultry czar who sets the price. It is charged he is none other than a young, pleasant faced market reporter for Price Current, a market sheet which sells price quotations to shippers and dealers. The reporter denies.

The West Washington market is where most New York poultry is bought and sold. It is a grotesque district of rabbit-like hutches. Here men in white aprons splotched with blood barter their wares. There are always bitterly toughs lounging about, waiting apparently for something to happen.

Somehow there seems to be a tension in the chicken market as though the poultrymen are aware of one blind fury which may at a moment be loosed. There is not the cheerful, jostling camaraderie of other market places—nor the jangle and shouting. It seems a deadly business.

* * *

O. Henry's "Four Million" in Bagdad on the Subway has reached 6,000,000. More than half of the 11,000,000 in New York state live in the metropolis. Housing and traffic [illegible] can become more intolerable but the [illegible] population continues to expand. The foreign population is of course the complicating factor in congestion. Foreigners huddle together in stifling tenements for protection because they can not speak the language. There is still room left in the boroughs of Queens and Richmond, but the aliens refuse to go there.

* * *

Traveling the serpentine paths of the [illegible] ted in poorer districts furnishes an illuminating example of the way families huddle together. It is not unusual to see ten to sixteen in a room designed for an ordinary sized single bed. Not long ago it was discovered a family of nine lived in two rooms, scarcely large enough for two to live in comfort. It is rather pathetic, sight to witness how beauty struggles for expression in such squalid setting. Withered little potted geraniums in almost every window. Fire escapes often decorated with gaudy bows of cheesecloth.

* * *

As one who reacts depressingly to poverty, I think the most forbidding bit of squalor stretches on Third avenue near some forlorn warehouses. It seems a hell of scrofulous brats. Mothers from windows watch anemic children who stand about listlessly as though never having learned to play. Fathers sit on street corner curbs with that unfailing hopelessness one finds only in the London slums.

* * *

I have often wondered why the lowest strata of poverty congeals near river fronts. It is true of river towns, like cities, etc. Wharfs invariably attract civilization's outcasts. It must be some unconscious urge to come to the water's edge in hope of escape. The filth of human dregs are to be found along the Thames embankment, under the bridges of the Seine and the New York water front.—Copyright 1926.

Who's Who and Why.

CARL EKMAN

Carl Gustaf Ekman, the new prime minister and minister of finance of Sweden, rose to a dominant place in politics from a humble beginning as a stonecutter. When some one addresses him as "his Excellency" he is quick to point out that he is an ex laborer, merely the first workingman in the country to rise to the premiership.

He dominates by the force of his personality. "It is my firm conviction" is his favorite way of addressing his political opponents in debate. When he is through he has usually carried his point, for he is also an eloquent orator.

Ekman was born in the province of Sodermanland, in South Central Sweden. He was the son of a stonecutter. Very early he began to earn his own living at the family's trade. It was not until he had passed his teens that he had an opportunity to attend a commercial and law school. His interest in the prohibition movement grew out of a desire to set a good example to some of his comrades. Gradually he began to give it his whole hearted support.

Instead of totally suppressing liquor supplies, Sweden has worked out a government rationing system so successful that the country is now comparatively temperate, instead of intemperate, as it was under total prohibition. Mr. Ekman has identified himself with the practical and social rather than with the moral and cultural phases of the movement. As it happens this interest became for him a stepping stone to power and success.

For a long time he was an obscure member of the Order of Good Templars. As one of the auditors he exposed a great embezzlement scheme, with the result that he was appointed to the board of management and a short time afterward to the position of grand master.

When one of the large evening newspapers in Stockholm was taken over by the prohibitionists he was chosen editor, having had some experience in journalism in Eskilstuna. But politics rather than journalism has claimed him. He has served as chairman of the committee on national defense and financial expert on the national debt commission. His present duties are those of minister of finance as well as prime minister. His strength in the diet has been due largely to the fact that he is unbending and unwilling to submit, yet therein too lies his weakness.

One of the most bitter of his old enemies, Ebel Lofgren, is minister of foreign affairs. That the two are now working harmoniously together arises from the tact and diplomacy of Sweden's popular king, Gustaf.

Few, by himself, Carl Ekman is not given to compromise or to letting others have their way.

A fatal accident costs the department [illegible].

The safety contest was devised by E. R. [illegible], supervisor of safety of the Hocking Valley Railway Co., and met the immediate approval of all officials.

Bed-Bugs?
Instant Death for the Pesky Creatures

Yes, instant death to bed-bugs, roaches or fleas. The moment P.D.Q., the new chemical discovery, touches these insects they die. Can do no damage to your springs or furniture; won't rot or stain clothing. P.D.Q. is used and recommended by leading hotels, hospitals and railroads as the quickest and safest way of getting rid of pesky insects. Instantly it smothers and kills the living creatures, coats their eggs, and stops them from hatching and multiplying. A 35c package of this chemical will make a quart of mixture so deadly it will kill a million bed-bugs. P.D.Q. can also be had in double strength liquid form—ready for use. Free patent spout enables you to reach hard-to-get-at places with ease. Get P.D.Q. at your druggist's today. Your money back if the bugs are not gone tomorrow.

TRY LEMON JUICE TO WHITEN SKIN

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle and you have a whole quarter pint of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy white complexion, also a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared. —Adv.

FIREMAN GETS UP STEAM BY AN IMPROVED METHOD

These days L. E. Brown, fireman at the Standard Oil Refinery, Parkersburg, W. Va., gets up steam in about half the time it formerly took him to do so.

The secret of this improvement may be summed up in the fact that he is taking Redwood's Tepee Herb Tonic. This medicine took away his pains, gave him strength and made him feel good other ways too. He is able to do more work than formerly and not feel half as tired.

Mr. Brown, who lives at 1011 Lynn Street, Parkersburg, W. Va., explains the situation as follows: "For the last five years I have been working nights and trying to sleep days. But my nerves were in such a highly strung state that I couldn't sleep soundly; consequently I felt tired all of the time.

"I was constipated and my food disagreed with me. After meals I felt bloated and stuffy and just like I had a big lump of cold metal in my stomach.

"I saw Redwood's Tepee Herb Tonic advertised. It sounded to me like it ought to hit my case so I tried it. It surely helped me. I am now able to sleep soundly as a baby and I'm so much stronger that I hardly know myself.

"I have a good appetite too and my food agrees with me. Before I took Tepee Herb Tonic half digested food would come up in my mouth but that has all passed away now.

"I'm feeling fit as a fiddle and I am glad of this opportunity to recommend the medicine that restored my health."

Tepee Herb Tonic may be had in Marion at Bradley, Henney & Company's, Wm. M. Shomp, Catlett's and all drug stores. Richwood, H. D. Kyle. Adv.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy Mother's Friend. Mrs. G. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse. We had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use Mother's Friend as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA-46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. Mother's Friend is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

IN HER BOOK "ETIQUETTE," which is the unquestioned authority on correct table appointments and usage, Mrs. Post says:

"A water glass standing alone at each place makes a meager and untrimmed-looking table." As a beverage Mrs. Post suggests ginger ale either alone or combined with other beverages or fruit juices.

When asked which ginger ale she considered best, Mrs. Post unhesitatingly said Clicquot Club Pale Dry. She said:

"I think Clicquot Club Pale Dry is much the nicest ginger ale I have ever tasted. It is attractive in color, tempting, sparkling, and delicious in flavor. In fact, it seems to complete the hospitable effect of a perfectly appointed table."

Two flavors to choose from

A drink of most delicate flavor when taken alone, the Pale Dry Clicquot also blends its subtle personality perfectly with other drinks. The Golden Clicquot is of more pronounced flavor, the famous drink that has made ginger ale America's most popular beverage. The Clicquot Club Company, Millis, Massachusetts

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs Annie Kwinski of 626 1st Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis, writes that she became so weak and run down that she was not able to do her housework She saw the name Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and said to her husband, "I will try that medicine and see if it will help me" She says she took six bottles and is feeling much better.

Mrs Mattie Adams, who lives in Downing Street, Brewton, Ala., writes as follows: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and since taking it I feel like a different woman."

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she never had time to do before—read the new books, see the new plays, enjoy her grandchildren, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good. Thousands of women past fifty, say they owe their health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mt. Gilead Defeats Marion in Kiwanis League Game

Local Club Fails to Make Use of 21 Hits Garnered off Visiting Team's Hurler

Van Atta and Jolley Lead in Offensive Attack, Garnering Four Hits Each in Five Trips to Plate, Hane Stops Visitors

THE Marion Kiwanis punished the horsehide to the extent of 21 hits last night at the Central Junior High diamond but lost to Mt Gilead in an untidy Kiwanis League game when the latter team made every one of their 12 lonely bingles count for runs. The final score was 10 to 7.

The invaders stepped into an early lead by crossing seven runs in the first three innings for a lead which was never headed at any stage of the contest. With the score 10 to 3 against them after seven innings the Marion team made a great effort to come from behind in the last two innings but their efforts stopped after four runs had been shoved across the rubber.

Whelan Hit Freely

Whelan hurled the entire game, nine innings for the visitors. Although touched for a great total of 21 bingles the visiting hurler showed unusual effectiveness in the pinches. Lawson started the game for Marion and was hit freely. John Hane who relieved him fared better holding the opposition down to two runs during the last four innings.

Jolley and VanAtta featured the hitting for the Marion team both garnering four hits in five trips to the plate. Guttman was the fielding star for the locals handling no less than 11 chances in the field and handling them well. Wilson and England featured the hitting and fielding for the visitors.

Berlenbach Defends Light Heavyweight Title in Bout With Jack Delaney Tonight

Crown Expected To Change Hands in Championship Go, Million in Cold Cash Being Bet on Outcome; Record Crowd To Attend

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

N[illegible] July 15—The rapier and the bludgeon will fight for the light heavyweight championship of [illegible] and according to me, the point of the former will [illegible] the butt of the latter.

Delaney, with a right hand like a duelling sword, Paul Berlenbach, with a left like a blunderbuss, [illegible] scheduled rounds tonight at Ebbetts Field. Brook[illegible] greatest fight of a 12 month and, for once one [illegible] is as good as another's. Mine is that Delaney [illegible] he has the speed [illegible] general smartness. He [illegible] for the second greatest [illegible] gift of the great sport [illegible] for once he appears to [illegible] months ago he attempted [illegible] away from Berlenbach [illegible] a hangover of upper [illegible] poisoning. He [illegible]

Delaney Favored

[illegible] supposed to have every [illegible] the only fear in the [illegible] that he may have over [illegible] few days ago he was [illegible] and unfortunately a [illegible] that way for more [illegible] hour or so. Anyhow [illegible] within an inch or [illegible] as he waited for the [illegible] afternoon at 2 o'clock the [illegible]

[illegible] required to make 175 [illegible] with the light [illegible] Neither has a care [illegible] on that score. Berlenbach [illegible] a half pound overweight [illegible] to lose it with plenty [illegible] drying out process [illegible] weight more than 172 [illegible] all his money in his hand [illegible] finances the match for [illegible] a 60,000 crowd and a half [illegible] gate the biggest in [illegible] since the Leonard Tendler [illegible] Firpo bouts of happy [illegible]

[illegible] a big money fight in [illegible] differences of opinion being [illegible] the box office were betting [illegible] money against the rent [illegible] half a million dollars on [illegible] conservative estimates will [illegible] hands on the result most [illegible] will bet. The sure thing [illegible] had no line on this one and [illegible] naturally are taking no [illegible]

[illegible] night odds were slightly in favor of Delaney but Berlenbach money was expected to wipe out before noon with the prospect that the champion would step into the ring a favorite. Such shifts are not uncommon among men who do not know their own minds to say nothing of those of others.

New York July 15—For the first time since the Dempsey Firpo fight in 1923 $100 was being asked by speculators along Broadway today for ringside seats to the Berlenbach Delaney match tonight. The box office price for these seats is $27.50 and the so-called "hole in the wall" places seemed to have an adequate supply of choice seats.

As high as $400 was said to have been paid scalpers for single seats to the Dempsey Firpo affair.

New York July 15—Opinion among boxing experts, sporting figures and ring stars is sharply divided as to who will win tonight's battle between Jack Delaney and Paul Berlenbach, although there seems to be a stronger leaning toward Delaney than the champion.

Delaney's admirers think he will win by a knockout early in the fight. Berlenbach followers predict if the bout goes over five rounds it will be "curtains" for Delaney. Some of the predictions:

Jack [illegible]: Famous sports writer: Courage is a fighter's greatest possession. Berlenbach should win this fight. He is a great fighter but not the pretty boxer Delaney is. Berlenbach and Fitzsimmons were Jeffries, Fitzsimmons not Ketchel but they were lion hearted warriors whose left handed punches were deadly. Berlenbach resembles them. He can take it and still come on.

Jack Dempsey: "Smart fighter these Delaney." James J. Jeffries: "Delaney by a knockout." James J. Corbett: "Berlenbach." Tom Sharkey: "Delaney." Wilbert Robinson: "Berlenbach." John J. McGraw: "I'll string along with Delaney." Georges Carpentier: "Delaney." Sid Mercer: "We predict that if Berlenbach is not flattened in a few rounds he will pound out a victory." Babe Ruth: "I like Berlenbach's hitting." Jimmy De Forest: "Delaney should win in a hurry."

New York July 15—Social financial legal and artistic circles will be well represented at the Delaney Berlenbach bout here tonight. A partial list of those who have taken ringside or box reservations is as follows:

Governor and Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, Mayor and Mrs. James J. Walker, Vincent Astor, John D. Rockefeller Jr., J. P. Morgan, James J. Corbett, James J. Jeffries, Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey, Senator Edge of New Jersey, Judge George Olvany, Chief of Tammany Hall, Gloria Swanson, Gilda Gray, Peggy Joyce.

NOVEL CONTESTS ARE PLANNED FOR OUTING

Farmers' Annual Picnic Set Back from July 22 to July 29

Mt Gilead July 15 — Insufficient time for preparation was the cause for the postponement of the Annual Farmers Picnic from July 22 to July 29, Farm Bureau officials said today.

Arrangements completed thus far include a parade by townships and a series of stunts for men and boys.

An innovation will be offered in the contests on hog calling by men and chicken calling by women.

A baseball game between men from the north and men from the south will be a part of the afternoon program. Horseshoe pitching is also to be a feature.

Program officials have been unable to secure a speaker to date but promise a good man. This difficulty was largely responsible for the postponement of the picnic.

ENJOYABLE SESSION HELD BY LADIES' AID SOCIETY

Cardington, July 15—The Ladies Aid Society of the M E Church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs Carrie Shaw.

A scripture reading by Mrs I C Sherman was included in the devotional exercises.

The business session followed at which it was decided that the society should hold a bake sale on Saturday July 31. Mrs Jay Smith and Mrs I C Sherman were appointed to get a location for the sale. Group leaders will be in charge of all contributions.

A number of stunts were engaged in by the members under the direction of the hostess and her assistants Mrs I B Ellis and Mrs O D Miller.

Mrs G H Bickelhaupt offered vocal selections. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Claudia Peck.

Refreshments were served.

The society will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs George Myers on Aug 10.

HOLDUP SUSPECT MAKES ESCAPE IN MARYSVILLE

Marysville July 15—Louis Chiesa, local confectioner, had a narrow escape last night of being robbed as he was going to his room which is located above his store. To reach his room it was necessary for Mr Chiesa to leave the store by a rear door and then ascend a flight of stairs.

Striking a match to see his way he noticed a strange man standing at the head of the stairs seemingly lying in wait for him.

Mr Chiesa summoned Night Officer Michael Murphy but the would-be robber had made his escape by the time the officer arrived.

The Chiesa store was burglarized about six weeks ago at which time $ [illegible] was taken.
